Supporting pupils with Special Educational Needs/Disabilities and their families.

Children are identified as having special educational needs when their progress has slowed or stopped and the interventions put in place have not resulted in improvements.

We let families know about any concerns about a pupil's learning by:

- Talking to parents and carers if we think their child has a special educational need and let them know what special help the school is giving.
- Provide parents with our SEND 'Information for Parents' leaflet.
- Share identified IEP targets and talk to parents and carers on a regular basis to discuss progress towards the targets and set new ones.

When a pupil is identified as having special educational needs, we support their development and progress by:

- Ensuring the right support is put in place for the child.
- The SENCO will advise school staff on how to help the child.
- Arranging training for staff so they understand the child's needs.
- Work closely with parents and carers on a regular basis to talk about the child's needs and listen to any ideas or concerns parents and carers might have.
- Work with other professionals (if necessary) who may be able to help and support, e.g. speech and language therapist /medical professional/ educational psychologist.
- Continue to share identified IEP targets and talk to parents and carers on a regular basis to discuss progress towards the targets and set new ones. Your child's class teacher will find ways to support a child in class such as:
 - Changing the way lessons are planned and delivered
 - Matching activities to the ability / need of a child (differentiation)
 - Adapting learning materials such as worksheets, books and activities to suit a particular need.
- Providing small group support.
- The teacher will work in partnership with parents and carers and the SENCO to find ways to support a child's needs, including providing ideas on how they can help their child at home.
